

FOHS General Meeting

April 23, 2019

- Social Time 5:30
- Welcome Jim Pearce, President
- Dinner 6:00
- Guest Speaker, Darrell Corte of Corte Bros. Mkt
 - Mr. Corte had a very interesting presentation on the history of the making of olive oil in our area as well as a the making of olive oil worldwide.
 - The California climate is ideal for olive growth. They like a hot, dry climate.
 - Originally a way to differentiate local from foreign oils was by the name. Europe used the term 'virgin', while California oils used the term 'pure'.
 - He also shared about the differences of quality and taste of the oils.
 - A sampling of 2 different oils was done following his instructions of how to 'taste' oil.
- Announcements
 - Judy and Warren Blomquist were feted, and a gift certificate given to them as a way of thanking them for there 10 years of service to FOHS for hosting the monthly meetings
 - Lois Frazier asked for volunteers to make cookies for the Memorial Day celebration.
 - Lynn Steen announced the 'It's My Park Day' on May 11 and asked for people to sign up to volunteer.
