Loop 3: Main Street and the Old Fair Oaks Bridge

Loop 4: The Cemetery

Find a link to the tour on our website above.

The Fair Oaks Historical Society

was formed to preserve the history and heritage of Fair Oaks. The Society conducts research and records oral histories and has published a booklet: The Early Years of Fair Oaks, and has reproduced a 1900 map of Fair Oaks. Our History Center was established as a repository and museum of Fair Oaks artifacts.

What we do:

- Protect and preserve historic documents, photos and artifacts related to Fair Oaks history
- Provide access to the public all materials in our collections
- Research questions from the public on Fair Oaks' history
- Maintain a History Center where the public can observe displays, photos, artifacts and documents and discuss questions with a trained docent
- Display videos and slide shows in a theater setting
- Provide access to over 800 historical Fair Oaks photos and assist local businesses and individuals in using the photos for displays
- Give talks on Fair Oaks' history to local civic and educational groups
- Conduct virtual and guided historical walking tours of the Fair Oaks Village and vicinity
- Conduct fundraisers and pursue grants
- Provide gift items of a Fair Oaks Historical theme
- Participate in community events such as the Chicken Festival, Fair Oaks Fiesta, Safe Halloween and Memorial Day
- Cooperate with other community services such as Parks, Rotary, Thursday Club, Sierra Chapter of the American Theatre Organ Society and others to promote the Fair Oaks community
- Maintain an online presence with a website and Facebook page devoted to Fair Oaks history

♥♥♥ Our Mission ♥♥♥

The Fair Oaks Historical Society and History Center are dedicated to collecting, preserving and presenting the historical record of Fair Oaks and its inhabitants.

To accomplish this mission, the Fair Oaks History Center Will:

- Preserve the historical record of the area known as Fair Oaks, California, 95628; that of its first inhabitants, the San Juan Rancho, the early settlers of the Sunset Colony and of succeeding generations.
- Educate the public on the history of Fair Oaks and its people through written, oral and media presentations, website publication and social media and respond to public inquiries regarding Fair Oaks History.
- Establish, operate and maintain an educational and research center and museum on Fair Oaks History for the benefit of the general public.
- Conduct research on the founders of Fair Oaks and the agricultural, civic, religious and cultural activities throughout its history and keep authoritative and permanent recordings of the facts in a repository.

This is the 1905 Fair Oaks Bank pictured at the SE corner of Fair

Oaks Blvd and California Ave. It opened to take in the savings of orchardists and ranchers who had settled on large spreads of land in the past decade. Decades after the bank closed and when the building was razed in 1952, a thousand memories went with it.

The first bank was located at the site where the present Fair Oaks Library is now on Grand Ave. About two years later, a fire destroyed that building. The temporary bank building, shown here that also burned, was located on California Ave. south of Plaza Park, where the real estate office is today.

One of the incomplete stories in Fair Oaks history is the saga of the Oasis Saloon. For those of you who don't know, the Oasis Saloon was located just at the southwest end of the Old Fair Oaks Bridge. While we found some articles about the turmoil the opening of the saloon created amongst Fair Oaks residents, we never found out exactly when and how it closed. A recent discovery of an archive of the Sacramento Union Newspaper changed all of that.

For the rest of the story, visit our website www.fairoakshistory.org and click on The Oasis Saloon.
